SMILING FACES

The Southwestern experience is different for every student, however, the common element shared by all, is a brimming smile that extends from ear to ear!

Southwestern University is like no other institution. Thousands of students have roamed the passages of the campus and have grown in this special place. This college has maintained an extraordinary educational environment for 150 years, and as a result it attracts many diverse individuals. A strong traditional attitude has continued during these years. This attitude encourages students to pursue a broad-based, value-centered education during their undergraduate years. Generation after generation of families have gone through the doors of Southwestern and left with something they will cherish and keep with them forever. They have gained the very best in liberal arts education and are proud to say that they attended Southwestern University.

Trippin' the light fantastic, Scott Streitman and Wendi Hirsch boogie to the disc jocky's tunes.

These bright and shining faces are Tuan Nguyen, Vernonica Rogers, Eric Timm, Kim Goldsmith, Melissa Burns, and Kelly Conrad.

"Look, I got mail!" exclaims Joe James. His mother hasn't forgotten he is here.

It can't be the Commons, Beth Herttenberger, Mary Monell, Candace Coen, Julie Leonard, Tammy Bland, Ashlie Simecek, Sarah Yarbrough, and Dora Nemeth actually look happy to be eating.

"Just-a-swinging", Penn King looks as if he is truely pleased with the way Jennifer Harper sings the melody of her favorite song!

Ever feel that the food is five days old, Kristen Davis, Helen Sharkey, and Lorella Flores seem to agree.

"Yeh, yeh. Can we get on with Freshman Orientation or what?" sighes Barry Sassman.

CAMPUS LIFE

Southwestern University is one of the finest institutions of undergraduate learning in the country. This school offers opportunities at home, as well as abroad to complement the college experience. Here on the campus students excel in expressing their individuality with a sense of interdepence. Cooperation with others and an understanding of them adds to classroom learning. The large endowment that Southwestern has encurred allows the university to hire the best faculty members and administrators. This, along with the small student to teacher ratio, builds the educational experience to one that is best suited for each individual. Each experience is different and makes students aware of others around them and in the world.

Moving in that first day of college is just too much fun. Julie Otto looks enthused.

"Not us?!" exclaims a smiling Troy West and Todd Mantz. These guys just couldn't be up to no good.

Hanging out at the Pike house, Amy Blake and Bobby Linhart discuss their strategy for winning kickball with Wendy Streza and Brigid Malek.

Studying diligently in the library, Pete Allman, Greg Rosner, and John Eagle help one another to prepare for their test the next morning.

Enjoying the breezy afternoon, Terry Smithson, Brian Kryszewski, and Steve Prince chat among themselves.

Taking advantage of those lazy days of fall, Joel McLemore, James Dewitt, and Beth Perkins study on the veranda.

Crusin' the campus on his bike, Chris Williams takes a short rest as onlooker Joe Wilson hopes to race him later that afternoon.

One has to wonder where Tom Macaluso, Sean Redeker, and Chris Maurer got that lovely Southwestern street sign?

On their way to Freshmen Symposium, Jennifer Murphy and Laura Popko stop for a quick pic.

On a trip to Amy's Ice Cream, Crystal Church, Meredith Matthews, Kimberly Jones, and Tonny Thomas can't wait for their sundaes.

Have a Coke and a smile! Vanessa Davis seems to be enjoying serving sodas to students during Freshmen Orientation.

Taking a study break, Amy Morris, Angela Watson, and Elise Eustace return from their short venture to Sonic.

STUDENT LIFE

HOMECOMING

Homecoming, as always, was a big success! Alumni, students, and friends joined to celebrate their memories at Southwestern and to create new ones. The celebration this year included Sing, the Parade, alumni sports events, fraternity parties, and the Homecoming dance featuring Third Language.

University Sing thrived both nights of the weekend. Zeta Tau Alpha's "Beginning the Tradition" won first place. Delta Delta Delta's "Little Freshman Annie" grabbed second and Pi Kappa Alpha stole third with "Cheers to 150 years". The PiKA's also won first in the Homecoming parade.

It is always sad to see Homecoming pass so very quickly, however, one looks to future Homecomings with anticipation.

"Let's study", says Katie Hamilton, but the rest of the Tri-Delts do not seem to agree during their act in Sing.

The Alpha Delta Pi's in their Rendition of Old S.U.

The Zeta Tau Alphas take their winning bow after Saturday night's judging.

Alumni, as well as undergraduates enjoy the Homecoming Picnic.

Onlookers enjoy the Homecoming parade.

Friends of Southwestern are escorted by Kris Olsta.

STUDY?

Study? Who really wants to study?

Everyone has to do it a large amount of the time during the week but most would like to be doing something else, especially on the weekends! During the spring and fall months one can find people catching a few rays behind the dorms, or walking around the campus. Year round, one observes that most students experience "rolling" at least once or twice a semester. Some go into Austin to get away from the Commons food or to go to that ever popular spot, 6th Street. No matter what individuals like to do with their spare time, it eases the stress of that nasty activity . . . STUDYING!

These guys Grady Sikes and Robby Miller look thrilled about taking their placement exams.

Bubbling over with excitement, Kim Massey prepares for pre-registration.

Relaxing in the pool, Shelby Holt, Diana Ashe, Stefanie Maurer, and Liza Harris enjoy the summertime weather while it lasts.

One of the most distracting activities at S.U. can be the telephone. Nisa Sharma looks like she is intrigued by the conversation.

Sitting comfortably in the ballroom, Prince Rahman crams for his next hour exam.

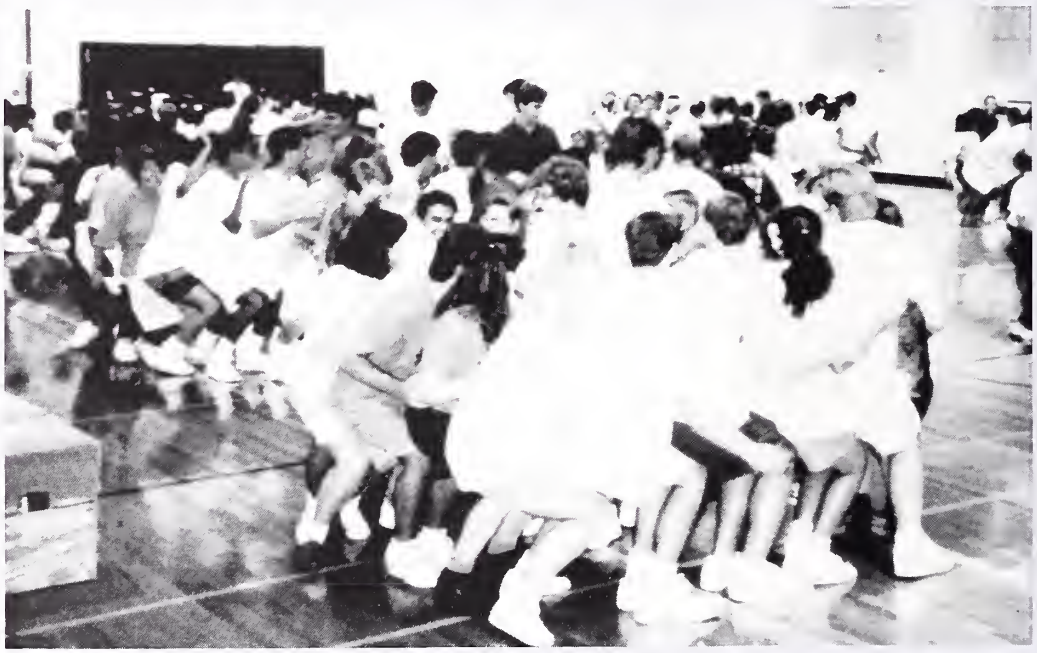
Cycling across the campus, Faith Gay hopes desperately she won't be late for class.

ACTIVITIES

Southwestern offers students many opportunities to participate in and benefit from an array of activities. Many groups such as Ebony, Union Program Council, and the different fraternities have parties to which all the campus is invited. They provide the entertainment such as live bands or disc jockies. Some groups even invite comedians and guest speakers to campus.

The University sponsors symposiums, and series of lectures to enhance the learning experience as well. There are art exhibits and many speakers for specific classes that students may attend.

President of the University of Texas Student Body, Toni Luckett speaks about student activism.



During Freshmen Orientation, freshmen really get to know one another as they play games that promote togetherness.

During weightlifting, this studly hunk Jack Franklin has to wait as Tom Kirkpatrick shows that he can lift the most.

After winning the first kickball game, Cathy Sanders, Julie Branch, DeeDee Thomas, Matt Heavner, Doston Bradley, Tracie Shelton, and Charles Ward do the high five.

Two residence halls battle it down to the winner in a grueling game of volleyball.

When Bertice Berry came as a guest to S.U., John Porter, Jason Miller, Jessica Hardeman, and Andrew Decker were allowed to pose as Tina Turner and company.

A hesitant Dorita Hatchett tries to get out of dancing with a persistant Tuan Nguyen.

FRIENDS

The friends one makes at Southwestern are the friends one will keep forever. The small university environment allows students to become familar with one another more easily than if one attended a larger university. Professors and students are more on the level of personal friends instead of students being just a face in the crowd. Students make contacts in their residence halls their freshmen year and spend time with them through activities planned by other residence assistants. Fraternities and sororities of Southwestern promote cooperation between themselves to establish true friendships that most will cherish the rest of their lives.

Friends one makes at Southwestern are friends one can trust and treasure.

"Look Mom, no hands," states Brent Brown being held captive by Brent Sommerly and Walter Martz.

This awesome residence hall is 2nd L.K. Residents are Erin Davis, Pam Davis, Emily Rosser, Sheana Dempsey, Jennifer Imle, Beth Berry, Karen O'Kuma, Marti Earley, Lisa Boyd, Rachel Mendoza, Kelli Bremer, and Ansalan Stewart.

"Speak no evil, see no evil, hear no evil," demonstrated by Glen Braden, Jeff Iezzi, and Andrew Craft at the University of Osnabruck.

Prepared for a hot night on the town, Kelli Holloway, Julie Greig, and Margaret Reilly attend a pre-party beforehand.

Sharing lunch in the Sub, Dave Newell and Andrew Walker discuss student life at S.U.

These two cuties Kris Olsta and June Chen show their pearly whites during a fun-filled meeting.

"We know we are bad!" Brent Brown, John Fruge, and Philip Pritchett make quite a trio.

President Shilling's right hand administrative assistant Francie Schroeder.

One of our favorite faces to see morning, noon and night is Francis Navarrette.

"Give me all your money," says Jan Puskarich, a Senior Clerk in the Buisiness Office.

Hard at work, Janice Hester, the efficient recorder for the Registrar's Office.

The all-knowing President Roy Shilling escorts two of his guests across campus.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The 1990-91 Sou'Wester has been published for all the students, faculty, and administration at Southwestern. I hope all that read and look through its' pages, laugh, and remember those fun and special times from the year.

I would like to give a special thanks to Dorita Hatchett for her support, and to Roxanne Barnes, to whom I owe a lot. She identified most of the pictures in this book and it could not have been completed without her help. To those people who put up with me throughout the year, Margaret Reilly, Julie Greig, Paige Bonner, Robyn Tangum, and Louis Bishop, thank you for always offering advice, help, and most of all, laughter. I also appreciate all the students who contributed pictures . . . Thank You!
